Defendants.	§

ORDER

On November 1, 2007, the Court held a teleconference in the above-styled action and ordered as follows:

Plaintiffs shall be permitted to conduct tests on the tire involved in the accident giving rise to this litigation under the following conditions:

- (1) Before the commencement of testing, Plaintiffs and Defendants shall work together to create a detailed testing protocol that is mutually acceptable to all parties;
- (2) Before the commencement of testing, Defendant shall have the opportunity to (a) review the credentials of the expert selected by Plaintiffs to conduct the testing, and (b) bring a Daubert challenge against such expert if Defendants feel such challenge is necessary;
- (3) Defendant is entitled to have representatives present during the testing;

- (4) Similarly, Plaintiffs are entitled to have representatives present during any testing conducted by Defendant; and
- (5) the testing shall be videotaped.

SIGNED and ORDERED this 5th day of November, 2007.
